Some Differences Between Palliative Care and Hospice

Question	Palliative Care	Hospice
Who can be treated?	Anyone with a serious illness	Anyone with a serious illness whom doctors think has only a short time to live, often less than 6 months
Will my symptoms be relieved?	Yes, as much as possible	Yes, as much as possible
Can I continue to receive treatments to cure my illness?	Yes, if you wish	No, only symptom relief will be provided
Will Medicare pay?	It depends on your benefits and treatment plan	Yes, it pays all hospice charges
Does private insurance pay?	It depends on the plan	It depends on the plan
How long will I be cared for?	This depends on what care you need and your insurance plan	As long as you meet the hospice's criteria of an illness with a life expectancy of months, not years
Where will I receive this care?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Home • Assisted living facility • Nursing home • Hospital 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Home • Assisted living facility • Nursing home • Hospice facility • Hospital
