In order to be eligible, a company must have been located in Sauk County for at least five years. Any type of business is eligible. Companies may nominate themselves. Three awards will be given – a large for-profit business with 50 or more employees, a small for-profit business with fewer than 50 employees and a non-profit business.

Please attach a company profile including a detailed narrative addressing the following points as to why this business should be selected as the 2013 Sauk County Large, Small, or Non-Profit Business of the Year.

I. For-Profit Businesses:

A. Recent Significant Business Accomplishments

Items that would qualify a company in this area include plant or business expansions, a new product or service line, significant employment or productivity growth, commitment to employee training, demonstrated customer satisfaction, advances in continuous improvement applied to all aspects of the business, increased sales, pollution control advances, installation of energy saving equipment, recycling programs, recognition from other organizations, or other similar activities.

B. Contributions to Enhance the Community:

Items that would qualify a company in this area include contributions of time and money to community projects and charitable organizations, service to area youth and education programs, employee involvement in community organizations, and other efforts to enhance the quality of life in the area.

II. Non-Profit Businesses

A. Recent Significant Business Accomplishments

Items that would qualify a non-profit business in this area include meeting and exceeding the goals and objectives of the mission of the organization, advances in continuous improvement as applied to all aspects of the organization, exceeding fund raising goals or revenue projections, and exceptional performance of the board of directors in guiding the business including strategic planning and thinking, constructive partnerships and results oriented leadership, integrity and transparency.

B. Contributions to Enhance the Community:

Items that would qualify a business in this area include significant contributions of time and money to increase the quality of life in Sauk County, volunteer involvement, and employee involvement in community organizations.
