Re: Screener Permission

Dear Public Media Group of Southern California:

In connection with the Sauk County Land Resources and Environment Department's ("SCLR") "2023 Conserve Sauk Film Festival" (the "Event") and in consideration of SCLR's request to use of a copy of "Earth Focus: For Love of the Land" (the "Program"), to be screened, one-time only, free of charge, at the Event's location on November 4, 2023, SCLR hereby understands and agrees as follows:

1. Public Media Group of Southern California makes no representation or warranty of any kind with respect to SCLR's use hereunder of the Program.
2. SCLR represents that the Program will be used solely for the purpose specified above and for no other reason whatsoever. SCLR will not make or permit the making of any reproductions of the Programs whatsoever, in whole or in part, and SCLR may not cut or edit the Programs for any reason, without prior permission from Public Media Group of Southern California.
3. SCLR hereby agrees to defend, indemnify and hold harmless Public Media Group of Southern California, its representatives, and its employees, harmless from and against all losses, costs, damages, judgments, liabilities and expenses (including, without limitation, reasonable outside attorney(s) fees, which may be based directly or indirectly upon our use of the Programs.

Sincerely yours,

By:
