Public Comment: None

Communications: None

Budgetary/Staffing Implications: J. Krueger reports that there was a meeting with Human Services to discuss staffing implications of the proposed framework for Drug Court. It was the opinion of Human Services that the program would be more successful if funding is requested in the Criminal Justice budget to contract with a local provider to provide services needed for drug court participants.

Key Decision Points: J. Krueger reports updates to questions asked of the drug testing company, Options Lab, and will move forward with evaluating a partnership. J. Krueger will also move forward drafting an RFP for contracted treatment services.
