

Punishment or Alternatives?

European Perspectives on Drug Related Crimes

Monday, Nov 16th • 4:30PM

Dr. Helmut Kury is a retired senior researcher at the Max Planck Institute for Foreign and International Law and faculty member at the University of Freiburg in Germany. His research background centered on comparative criminology, particularly penal policy throughout Eastern and Western Europe. His most recent research is focusing on international variation in drug policies, such as decriminalization in Portugal, and forms of drug related criminal sanctions.
