7. Monthly Justice, Diversion & Support Report:

ATC has received quite a few referrals this year. Currently have 13 active participants. SUDS- there was an uptick in Law Enforcement referrals, then dropped. Continue to encourage referrals. Educational Navigator is out- hired a part time replacement. DSA program- on hold to new referrals until short staffing is resolved. Currently have 9 active DSA participants. PTACC conference in August in Chicago. NACO trip was cancelled due to weather.

8. Discussion regarding strategic planning and program planning:

Direction for CJCC to go in future. Oversight committee for JDS/ATC. Hold meetings with goals to accomplish. Purpose of standing committees are to resolve problems assigned by the CJCC. Examples of resolutions that came from this are the text messaging program and driver's license reinstatement program. Need to find resolutions for systemic problems like housing and transportation. Mike and Rick spoke of changing the bylaws to eliminate standing committees and go to AD Hoc committees as needed. Rick will work on a language change in the CJCC bylaws. T. Dorner suggests making JJS, AJS and VF permanent topics on future agendas. T. McCumber suggests Amanda look into what purpose the need for CJCC is for ATC. Bring any program ideas to the next meeting. Send agenda items to Mike.
