Update regarding law enforcement system selection work group:

1. Update provided by Polzer regarding software demonstration on November 13, 2017.
2. Pate elaborated on more specifics regarding the overall process. He noted the desire to hopefully make a Spring 2018 recommendation to the Board.

Update/further discussion regarding Adult OWI Treatment Court:

1. Definition of recidivism: conviction for impaired driving offense 12 months after completion of program.
2. Need identified to develop a data set to compare statistics with – including control group.
3. Polzer contacted Wisconsin DOJ regarding potential data mining services (interface capabilities continue to be a problem).
4. Wastlick contacted Wisconsin DOT regarding data possibilities (discussed CCAP).
5. Discussed measurement tools, including: no OWI's and no alcohol related offenses.
6. Neumann presented statistics she was able to glean from DA Protect which may help determine a base line for OWI re-offense.
