Treemanisha Stewart, Health Officer/Director of Public Health Sauk County, Recognized by the de Beaumont Foundation as a Leader in Public Health

Treemanisha Stewart, Health Officer/Director of Public Health Sauk County, has been recognized as one of the 40 Under 40 in Public Health. The de Beaumont Foundation announced its 2023 honorees on September 7th after reviewing nominations from hundreds of leaders in public health. The new class was selected by a distinguished panel of public health professionals for their leadership and contributions to their community's health.

"The professionals chosen for the 40 Under 40 in Public Health Class of 2023 demonstrate the determination, commitment, innovation, and resilience of the public health field," says Brian C. Castrucci, DrPH, president and CEO of the de Beaumont Foundation. "Their work is strengthening communities and improving lives, and I look forward to following their careers and learning from them."

"I'm honored to receive the de Beaumont Foundation's 40 Under 40 in Public Health," Treemanisha says. "It makes me feel wonderful to be recognized by the de Beaumont Foundation's world-renowned experts for my public health work. While receiving this award, I must recognize the most valued input of God, my mentors, my coworkers and finally my family and friends. I hope this award allows me to continue my mission to expand both my public health knowledge and also my public health initiatives."
