

Make a Difference with CHILDREN'S LONG-TERM SUPPORT SERVICES

Want to make a positive impact in the lives of Wisconsin's children with disabilities? Become a provider in the Children's Long-Term Support (CLTS) Waiver Program.

Make a difference.

CLTS providers help children experience their communities, interact with peers, and enrich their lives. As a CLTS provider, you will work with local counties and the Wisconsin Department of Health Services (DHS) to provide services and supports to children with long-term disabilities or complex medical needs.

Fill a need.

There is a growing need for more providers. The CLTS Waiver Program is now serving more than 10,000 children—an increase of 60% since 2017. Even more growth is expected as more funding is identified.

Share your passion.

All providers interested in working with children with disabilities and their families are encouraged to register. We are looking for direct care workers, therapists, counselors, and others who help children live their best lives through:

- Delivering child care
- Offering counseling and therapeutic services
- Teaching a child daily living skills
- Mentoring a child
- Providing respite care (short-term breaks for families)
- Providing training or education for families
- And more!

There are several ways direct care workers can become providers in the CLTS Waiver Program:

- Work through a fiscal agent or get hired through an agency. For more information on this, contact your local county human services department.
- Register with DHS as a sole proprietor.
