

PASTURE WALK

Photos by Jennifer & Eric Rittenhouse

WHEN: Thursday, June 2 at 6:00 PM

WHERE: Double R Ranch (W9598 Co. Rd O, Elroy)

Stop out to Double R Ranch to join Jennifer, Eric and Colton Rittenhouse for their pasture walk and learn more about woody vegetation and invasive species control.

Learn about how the Rittenhouse's are working to manage invasive species such as Canada thistle, buckthorn, multi-flora rose and more through the use of managed grazing across pasture land with their herd of 50 head of red & black angus cattle and also through the managed forest law (MFL) program.

Stop out to learn, share, and network!

This event is free and open to the public. No RSVP required.
