JIM GERRISH

GRAZING WORKSHOP

Tuesday, June 11 | 9:00 am - 3:30 pm

Learn from Jim Gerrish, an independent grazing lands consultant, author, & researcher.

Whether you're a beginning, intermediate, or advanced grazer, there will be lots to learn. Topics that will be discussed at this workshop include the value of managed grazing, forage quality and management, and so much more. This workshop will be split between a classroom portion in the morning, & a pasture walk in the afternoon for hands-on learning opportunities.

Join us for a day of learning and take your grazing operation to the next level.
